

HOUSE WINE BY THE GLASS / BOTTLE

HOUSE WHITE

Glass
125ml £2.10

THE OX HOUSE WHITE

Our house white wine comes from a small family estate in the South of France, not some faceless industrial wine factory. It is dry and very refreshing, with a delicate floral fruit character and restrained 12.5% alcohol. Good by itself, very versatile with food too.

Glass
175ml £3.00

HOUSE RED

Glass
250ml £4.20

THE OX HOUSE RED

Made from a judicious mix of tried and tested southern French grape varieties including grenache, syrah and merlot, this generously flavoured Mediterranean wine develops beautifully in the glass and is a much better bet than most cheap Bordeaux reds.

WINES BY THE GLASS

2008 BEAULIEU Vin de Pays

From a small vineyard in Gascony, this crisp light dry wine is bursting with tropical fruit aromas of pineapple and passionfruit, delicious as a drink on its own as well as with food.

£13.50 per bottle

2006 VINA PERGUITA

Soft, ripe tempranillo grape flavours with a contribution of extra class coming from a small addition of cabernet sauvignon, this is from a friendly family farm in Navarra, very close to the Rioja district.

£15.50 per bottle

2007 TOURAINE SAUVIGNON

Delicate gooseberry, redcurrant and hedgerow scents of the sauvignon grape from Thierry Michaud's small vineyard near the River Loire. A dry wine of very wide appeal, it hits the spot time after time with its cool refreshing style, a worthy rival to good Sancerre.

£15.50 per bottle

2007 MERLOT Las Mercedes

Lively plum and blackcurrant flavours from merlot grapes grown in Chile with winemaking expertise from Bordeaux adding extra dimensions.

£14.50 per bottle

2007 CHARDONNAY La Linda

This chardonnay from Argentina delivers pear, green apple and white peach aromas with a fine balance of flavour on the palate.

£14.50 per bottle

2006 SYRAH La Linda

A bold Argentinian with dark fruit flavours, spice and vanilla touches from oak, and good grip from tannins that will resolve most sweetly with red meat dishes.

£14.50 per bottle

2007 TOURAINE ROSE

A deliciously delicate pink wine full of fresh red fruit flavours and scents of the garden, intensely charming and refreshing at any season of the year.

CLASSIC WINES BY THE BOTTLE

WHITE

2007 SANCERRE Chavignol

Vincent Delaporte is one of the leading growers here and this classic wine made from Sauvignon grapes grown on a great site has all the cut and thrust of the gooseberry and gunflint aromas that have made this one of the wine world's most enduring favourites.

£27.50 per bottle

2007 CHABLIS

at the delicate end of the chardonnay spectrum, this refreshing example has ripe fruit flavours balanced by crisp acidity, steel and minerality without any sharpness.

£23.00 per bottle

2007 MACON PERONNE 'Le Clou'

From Pierre and Veronique Janny's best parcel of chardonnay vines in southern Burgundy, this hints at warm biscuits with traces of vanilla, nuts and honey. A perennial crowd pleasing favourite.

£22.90 per bottle

2005 CHATEAU MONTEILS, Sauternes, France

The honeyed sweetness from the overripe grapes here is balanced by a fresh citrus acidity to give a delicious long aftertaste. A wonderful dessert wine, this also works well with the foie gras.

£22.50 per 37.5cl bottle

RED

2007 CHATEAU LA PAGAUTE

A refreshing young claret from the Graves district of Bordeaux, this is already delicious to drink, with light cabernet and merlot grape character and a dry hint of tobacco leaf without any harsh astringency.

£18.80 per bottle

2007 FLEURIE

From supertalented maverick grower Jean-Paul Brun, who works wonders with the gamay grape on the best sites in the Beaujolais district, this is mouthfillingly gulpable and generous, fully deserving of its great popularity.

£27.50 per bottle

2005 GIGONDAS

Rich, robust and spicy southern Rhone with satisfying depth and length of flavour, always further enhanced by food.

£29.50 per bottle

CHAMPAGNE & SPARKLING BY THE BOTTLE

PROSSECCO di Conegliano Spumante NV

Stone, chalk, and yeast dominate the bouquet when cold, but fragrant peach and flowers emerges after a few minutes.

It is dense and creamy.

White peaches, apricots and plenty of mineral mark the palate

£20.50 per bottle

Bernard Gaucher NV Champagne

Made from 100% Pinot Noir, this wine is dry, medium bodied, well balanced and full of flavour

£32.30 per bottle
